what precisely you have accomplished since the last progress report

Still couldn't get the correct path to read the data from external server. Scheduled consultation.

any necessary revisions to your product moving forward

Not at the moment. I think I can accomplish at least combining the files into one big data file.

anticipated timelines for the remaining components of your product

Feb 21th: Get the files in one sheet by next week. Feb 28st: Get the variables out of the sheets March 6th: Start the correlation analysis
